

ALEXANDRIA, VA.

THURSDAY, MAY 11, 1871.

In the U. S. Senate, yesterday, convened in extra session, the treaty of Washington was submitted, and the Senate immediately went into Executive session upon it. Mr. Cameron, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, commented upon its provisions as being honorable and satisfactory, and he hoped it would be adopted. Mr. Sumner indicated an opposition to several of the terms of the treaty, particularly the admission of the claims of British subjects against the U. S. He suggested several amendments, but did not desire to offer them himself. Mr. Cameron desired that the treaty should be published in full, but withdrew his motion to that effect. It was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, and the Senate adjourned until Friday (to-morrow.)

The Springfield, Mass., Republican, (Radical) says:—"If the Republican party maintains itself in government for another four years, it will be because of the severe discipline it has received at the hands of the independent Republican press and of the more independent Republican leaders in Congress during this current year." The English of this is: had it not been for the opposition made to the course of the administration, in several particulars, by prominent men of the Radical party, there is no knowing to what length affairs would have been carried, and what mischief perpetrated! Bad as things are, those in authority would have made them worse!

It is stated that only sixteen millions of the fifty-four millions of national bank circulation authorized by the act of last July have been taken by the South and West. The twenty-five millions of existing circulation, which were to be distributed after the fifty four millions had been taken, will be of no effect until July 13, when it is applicable to all the States, as well as the balance of the additional sum authorized. The entire amount, it is said, will be subscribed for in the East. The want of capital in the South has prevented the establishment of the new banks authorized by the act.

A Washington correspondent, of the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, records in that paper a conversation recently had with Governor Walker in the city of Washington. The Governor's remarks embraced three principal topics, the orderly calm prevailing in the political world of Virginia, the hopeful state of our financial affairs, and the steady return of material prosperity. The general situation of our affairs, as indicated in this interview, is one of hopeful and energetic progress, and the Governor congratulates the State upon the pleasing contrast between May, 1871, and May, 1865.

The following cases were heard yesterday, before the Southern Claims Commission:—John E. Febrey, Falls Church, Virginia $7,720; Mrs. Virginia Scott, Alexandria county, Virginia, $8,952.50; Mrs. Mary J. Wayne, for supplies taken from the plantation of the late Judge Wayne, near Savannah, $4,800. The following cases are set for to-day, viz: Robert S. Lacy and Mrs. Anna Perry, of Washington city; Dr. J. B. Sullivan and Whitty M. Sasser, of Rapides parish, Louisiana; and Frances E. Dodson, of Burke's Station, Virginia.

The excursion of the Fifth Regiment of the National Guards of Baltimore, to Mount Vernon, yesterday, was a very agreeable one, in every respect. Company I of the Regiment was under the command of Capt. J. J. Hooff formerly of this place. In passing through Washington the troops were reviewed by the President. At Mount Vernon every courtesy was extended to them. They returned to Washington last night.

According to the terms of the Washington treaty the persons who are to suggest three of the five arbitrators of the Alabama claims, are the Emperor of Brazil, the President of Switzerland, and the King of Italy. These were the choice of the Commissioners on the part of the United States. The Commission to meet at Geneva.

A dispatch from Germany says that the final treaty of peace between France and Germany has been signed at Frankfurt, and so the distracted country is left free to settle its own internal troubles. The news from Paris indicates that this is rapidly being accomplished by the Government and its army.

It is said that the Russian minister has received advice that the Russian Prince has postponed his visit to this country till the last of September or first of October. All the preparations in progress here to welcome him in June will therefore be abandoned for the present.

Rev. Mr. Cheney, of Chicago, lately sentenced to be removed from the ministry of the Episcopal Church, does not succumb. He says he is sustained in his course by many "bishops, priests and deacons," and large numbers of the laity.

Mr. W. N. Edwards, of North Carolina, who succeeded Nathaniel Macon, as a representative in Congress from North Carolina, in 1816, and served until 1827, is in the 84th year of his age, hale and hearty.

One of the jokes of the day is, that Lucien Beard, the horse thief was the "Moon Ghost," and went about "clad in mail so as to be bullet proof!" He had always something more important on hand than playing ghost!

The Post Master General is to "review and readjust, upon a proper basis, the salaries of Postmasters, from and after July 1, 1872."

"Ku-Klux" abounds in the Pennsylvania Anthracite coal region. What does Governor Geary say to the application of the Ku-Klux law in that State? Certain it is that the "Miners Benevolent (!!) Association" is the quintessence of "Ku-Klux."

It is remarked by the Loudoun Mirror, that "not the least of the many evils growing out of the present constitution of Virginia, is the vast number of offices created by it, and the frequency with which the citizen is summoned to the ballot-box."

The South Carolina Tax Payers' Convention appears to be in amicable co-operation with the Governor of the State, so far; as he has promised to assist them in making a correct statement of financial affairs, and to do all he can for the alleviation of the burdens of the people.

The Washington Patriot thinks that the High Commission Treaty is in every respect a complete surrender of all principles and pretensions heretofore asserted, in relation to the matters that have been in dispute.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times."

The case of St. Clement's Church, Philadelphia, came up yesterday in the Court of Common Pleas. Judge Ludlow refused the application for an injunction to restrain the acting Vestry from forcing their resolution of disavowal against the Rector and his Assistant, on the ground that the Supreme Court had already taken jurisdiction in one branch of the case. The Judge, however, is ready to hear the case if the Supreme Court declines.

The approaching Triennial Convention of the Episcopal Church, which is to be held in Baltimore in October, will be the most important of any since the formation of the Church in the U. S. It will be called upon to decide a number of questions regarding the ritual, ecclesiastical garments and services, that have been referred to it from Bishops and Diocesan Conventions for final settlement.

Ground was broke yesterday in Baltimore for the tunnel of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad. A train of construction cars and a locomotive were on Tuesday dispatched from Baltimore to the point where the Potomac River crosses the Annapolis and Elk Ridge Road, and rails are now being laid on that portion of the road as rapidly as possible.

From the books of the Treasury Department it appears that the receipts from customs for the present year will exceed the estimates of Secretary Boutwell by $15,000,000. The estimates were $185,000,000 for the year, and up to this time the receipts have been $172,000,000, with returns to be made for May and June.

At the monthly meeting yesterday of the Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, Wm. Keyser, was chosen Second Vice President. Mr. Keyser is also a Director in the Western Maryland, and is President of the Parkersburg Branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Road.

The convention of the Grand Army of the Republic met at Boston yesterday. One hundred and fifty delegates were present from all the Northern States, and Gen. Logan, the president, made a speech, claiming that the organization was not instituted to serve any political party.

A meeting of the miners at Pottsville yesterday decided on arbitration, and immediate resumption. Reports from the riot at Hyde Park make it much worse than at first reported. Yesterday troops were on the ground, and quiet restored.

In San Francisco, the case of Dr. Lipotai against Livanovick, in which was proposed the right of the Chinese to testify in the State Court of the recent acts of Congress, has been settled, the defendant paying the claim, thus preventing the question being decided.

Among the nominations sent to the Senate yesterday by the President were Joseph Belknap, to be Supervising Inspector of Steamboats, Max Woodhull, Assistant Secretary Legation at London, and John M. Frances, of New York, to be Minister Resident to Greece.

Hide cuttings without hair are, according to a decision of the Treasury Department, subject to ten per cent. duty, instead of twenty, as heretofore assessed.

In the Connecticut House of Representatives yesterday a resolution was reported declaring Marshall Jewell (R.) elected Governor by eighty-six majority.

Mr. George Bancroft, Ambassador of the U. S. to the German Empire, has tendered his resignation of the position.

The steamer Bertha left Baltimore yesterday for Bremen, including in her cargo were nearly one thousand hogsheads tobacco.

THE LATE J. M. MASON.—The Richmond Enquirer has an interesting biographic sketch of the life and character of the late JAMES M. MASON, written by Henry A. Wise, from which we will make some extracts hereafter.

Gov. Wise concludes his estimate of the deceased by saying that "he was an honest man, a highly cultivated gentleman, a well trained and practical lawyer, a sound statesman, and a pure patriot."

In referring to the personal qualities of Mr. Mason, Gov. W. says:—"There was inexplicably mixed in him qualities confused in the composition, which made him seem to strangers what he was not—somewhat haughty in his carriage. There was a gentleness mixed with a haughty uncongenial; a hearty laugh combined with the sternest frown; a brusqueness with a reticent and commanding dignity; a John Bull bluffness with a French-like air of finished politeness; a Virginia old plantation way with marked attention to niceties; a jealous regard for conventional forms, and yet he would violate them imperiously. His integrity was sterling—exact to truth; his firmness was rock-like; his sense of honor was of the highest tone, and his every word and action was guided by a discretion always sound and always on guard. In the family, both of his father, and his own home, he was the model of husband, father, son, and brother; among his friends and associates he was supreme in the few men ever to have magnified by the nearer approach to him; he was greater near to him than he appeared to be at a distance."

BEES AND HONEY.—The bee and honey business has become a great interest in Nansmond. Captain R. Arnold has about five hundred hives of the Langstroth patent, and is determined to make the people see that there is money in raising honey. Many of our people have caught the spirit of Mr. Arnold, and are raising bees largely. Mr. James Phelps, in the lower parish, has fifty or sixty hives, from which he realized about 1,500 pounds of honey last season, and ought to raise twice as much this year. Honey is worth twenty-five cents per pound in New York.—Suffolk Star.

Mr. Anderson of Norfolk, on Monday shipped from his farm near that city fourteen thousand quarts of strawberries, the fruits of one picking from his path of nearly one hundred acres.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

It is the practice of the students at the Virginia Military Institute to collect every morning on the second floor of the porch of the Institute building to receive their mail. On Tuesday 9th inst., the platform gave way, precipitating them all about fifteen feet to the floor below, by which twenty-one were injured. Cadet A. T. Wilcox, of Tennessee, had a leg broken; ten got limbs sprained; the remaining ten were considerably bruised, but fortunately had no bones broken.

The Petersburg Index says:—"Many of our exchanges have published the news that Dr. Lewis, one of the murderers of Constable Drummond of Brunswick county, has been 'pronounced insane.' This is a mistake. The question of his insanity was left to a jury, which failed to agree; consequently, the prisoner was remanded to jail for a hearing in October next. If the prisoner had been pronounced insane, Judge Weisiger (the presiding Judge) would have sent him to an insane asylum."

In Judge Underwood's court Norfolk, one day last week, two attorneys, who are cheerfully described as the great Mogul of carpet-baggers and the Tycoon of scallwags, laid to fist-cuffs. The Judge is appealed to enforce the Ku-Klux bill, to whose provisions they are directly amenable.

The Charlottesville Woolen Factory offers for the contract for furnishing the Virginia Volunteers with grey cloth for uniforms. They are all to be clothed alike, and it is thought that the Governor will prescribe grey as the color. A dispatch from Lynchburg, Va., says the river was ten feet above the usual level. The river is rising at Richmond, and another flood is apprehended by some.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.—The Board of Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal met in Baltimore yesterday. The earnings of the canal for the month of April were $61,000; the expenses for the month ending 1st of May were $14,000; showing net earnings to be $47,000. The business this month so far is fully equal to that done in April. The recent rains caused a rise in the Potomac to such an extent that the banks of the canal were overflowed on the Hancock, Monocacy and Georgetown Divisions; but no serious damage was done. Navigation was fully resumed in forty hours. The Board of Directors have resolved to pay twenty-five per cent. more of the principal of Adams' debt this month.

When this is done, it will show seventy-five per cent. of the principal and all the overdue coupons on this class of indebtedness, paid during the year the present administration has had charge of the canal. The President, James C. Clarke, is certainly "pushing things." The shipment of coal for May, up to this date, has averaged 4,500 tons per day from Cumberland. The canal is now in complete order throughout the entire line.

MILK, BUTTER, &c.—By the report of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, it appears that there were transported over that Road for the year ending 31st October 1870, 1,201,790 gallons of milk, to Baltimore 473,007 gallons, or a total of 1,674,797 gallons, producing a revenue to the Road of $20,329.68. Putting down the quantity from each cow at 300 gallons per annum, the produce of each cow, putting the milk at 20c per gallon, would be $100 for a cow per annum—quite as productive as raising wheat, corn and oats and buying fertilizers to make them with. The manures from the barn yard would supersede the fertilizer, and enable the dairy-farmer to enrich his land much better than by the use of those expensive manures.

CITY COUNCIL.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS.

Common Council.

At a meeting of the Common Council, held May 10, 1871, there were present John B. Smoot, Esq., President, and Messrs. Shinn, Wheat, Neale, Landon, Waterman, Price, Portner, Masse, and Parker.

On motion of Mr. Massey, the vote by which "an act to amend section 9 of an act entitled 'an act reducing into one and amending the several acts respecting the removal of nuisances and the preservation of the health of the town' was reconsidered, and the bill passed by its title."

A communication from Gould & Wilkening, asking for an abatement of assessment was referred to the Committee on Claims.

A report of the Committee on General Laws, now on the matter, had been referred, recommending an appropriation to defray the expense of printing the blank forms in the conduct of cases, in which the Commonwealth is a party, was adopted.

The report of the Committee on General Laws adverse to the petition of certain trucksters, asking permission to sell beans, potatoes, &c., by weight instead of by measure, was recommended. A bill of J. C. Milburn, amounting to $4 for services as judge and commissioner of election, was referred to the Committee on Claims.

A communication, accompanied with an order issued by E. M. Lowe, Judge of the Corporation Court, respecting the appointment of judges and commissioners of election was read, and the following order passed: "That the following named persons, be and are hereby appointed commissioners to hold and superintend the election for four members of the Board of Aldermen for the four wards of the city, to be held on the 25th day of May, 1871, as follows: For the first ward, Nathaniel Boush, B. H. Lambert, Jr., and John S. Fowler. For the second ward, J. C. Milburn, E. T. Steele and A. C. Kell. For the third ward, E. J. Lloyd, K. Kemper and J. C. Clarke. For the fourth ward, Geo. W. Jamieson, Emanuel Francis, and C. C. Berry, and that the Auditor be and is hereby directed to prepare the books necessary for the use of the commissioners, for holding the election."

The action of the Board of Aldermen in adopting the report of the Committee of Conference, recommending the exemption of Knox's Express from the tax on express companies was non-conceded in a resolution, authorizing an abatement of $400 in the license tax of the petition, was adopted.

The action of the Board of Aldermen in adopting the report of the Committee on Claims, recommending a reduction in the assessment of the property of Adams' Express for the years 1869, 70 and 71 to $1100 for each of those years, was non-conceded in, and the report amended so as to provide that said reduction shall be credited upon taxes now unpaid.

The action of the Board of Aldermen upon the following reports, petition, bills, and resolutions, adverse to the petition of J. A. Seaton, for a reduction of assessment; ordering a bill of F. A. Weedon, amounting to $23.35 to be paid; adopting a resolution of the Committee on Claims, recommending that the City Surveyor be allowed to withhold his account; recommending a petition of G. W. Harrison, for reduction of assessment; ordering the payment of a bill of James Entwistle, Jr., amounting to $107 for the Auditor of the City, for authorizing the Auditor to furnish the Registers of the city with such books as may be necessary to make the record of the registered voters as required by the acts of 1869-70, chapter 46; adopting the report of the Committee on Claims, recommending that John Leonard and Anthony Perspener shall only pay license tax as dealers in wood; and referring to the Finance Committee a communication from John W. Burke, chairman of the City School Board.

On motion of Mr. Smoot, the vote by which the Board of Aldermen had adopted a resolution to restrict the wards of the city was lost, was reconsidered, and the bill laid on the table.

A resolution was adopted providing that the election on the 25th inst., in the Fourth Ward, of the City of Alexandria, for the office of Alderman, be held at 10 o'clock, on the west side of Alfred street, between Prince and Duke streets.

The Board then adjourned. HAROLD SNOWDEN, Clerk.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Quit Drugging.—This is now admitted by the medical profession as a fundamental principle of healing science. It is wisely provided by the human economy that whenever anything is wrong in the physical system the natural forces of the body are brought to bear to expel the disease. The great aim, therefore, is to strengthen the natural powers. This has been kept in view by the skillful compounders of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which operates to give fresh vitality to all the organs of the body. The effect of this medicine upon the stomach, the liver and the kidneys is prompt and decisive. The patient, who is wise enough to quit drugging and try the Bitters, soon feels as if he had taken a new lease of life, and as he continues the use of the article, he is overjoyed to find the streams of health coursing through his frame. It is prepared with great care, and its component parts are entirely vegetable. It is free from all properties urged against preparations of the kind. As a medicinal agent it has no equal, while its pleasing flavor and healthful effects have made it a general favorite. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system, and its operations are at once mild, soothing and efficient. All who have used Hostetter's Stomach Bitters attest its virtues and commend it.

Even those who are in the enjoyment of perfect health frequently have need to have recourse to Bitters as preventives of disease. We are never too well armed against the assaults of "the ill that flesh is heir to." In health or sickness this tonic cannot be taken regularly without giving vitality and elasticity to the system. my 8-c-1y
